Then, create your own color wheel using found objects around your house! So, find small objects that are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple. Arrange them in a circle like the picture.	Ed Emberley’s Thumb Print Drawings Click on this link for inspiration. Today, you’ll want to find a marker, ink, or some liquid paint. You will also need some paper. Any paper will do. First, color a little on the finger of your choice and make a print onto the paper. What will this fingerprint become? Using a black pen, pencil or marker, add details to transform your fingerprint into an awesome work of art! Here is a link to Ed Emberley’s drawing tutorials. Simple and easy drawings to add to your thumbprints. Have fun! Get creative! I’d love to see your artwork this week. Email me your pictures.	Directed Drawing 3-5 This is the perfect time to draw! Watch this Brain Pop video to start . Then, practice your drawing skills using one of the following links: Artforkidshub.com or Artprojectsforkids.com Remember to show craftsmanship, take your time, and color neatly. I would love to see your drawings! Email them to me or post them on your instagram and tag @vpes_art!
