

3rd Grade Home Learning Calendar Week 10 May 25-28

Students are expected to engage in instructional activities for at least three 30-minute sessions a week for both Language Arts and Math.

	Subject Area	Activity 1	Activity 2	Activity 3
Essential Learning Activities	Language Arts *Students are expected to read a minimum of 20 minutes each day in addition to activities.	This year we worked a lot with goal setting. Now it's your turn to create goals for your summer reading. If you don't know already, there is a summer reading challenge. Your main goal is to read 8 chapter books. To meet this large goal, what are 4 small goals you can set for yourself to complete the summer reading challenge? Use the attached PDF to help you plan for your summer reading by goal setting. If possible, print your goals for summer reading and post it in your cozy reading spot at home, or use it as a bookmark. Summer Reading Goals	Please follow the link to our grade level Padlet! Here, you will share: 1. Your summer reading goals. 2. Your VERY most favorite cozy reading spot in your home. 3. One of the book titles you hope to read this summer and why Summer Reading Padlet	The third-grade teachers thought it might be fun to host our own grade level talent show! Join us on Wednesday evening at 5pm to share your talent or cheer on your friends. We can't wait to see you all in our Zoom talent show! Please follow the link below.
